As we enter into a new year, we reflect on all the children and their families we were able to help in 2021 because of your continued support.

Below are some highlights and photos from the holiday season!

- Delivered a ton of new games and crafts to Ronald McDonald House Charleston.
- The family of baby Crew, who has undergone a bone marrow transplant at our local hospital MUSC, received toys, grocery cards, and DoorDash gift cards for their long hospital stay.
- We were able to make our first visit to The Children's Hospital of the King's Daughters in Virginia where Jesse's brother Matt is now stationed, providing them with 48 DoorDash gift cards.
- The CURE Holiday Angel Family Program offered us the ability to adopt a local family for Christmas. We provided for a sweet 3-year-old girl Lily, fighting B-cell ALL Leukemia. Her Santa list included a bicycle for her and her sister, as well as a basketball hoop for her brother. Meeting the family was such an honor as we rarely get that personal interaction since COVID.
- Mailed 30 Target gift cards to St. Christopher's Children's Hospital in Philly.
- Sami delivered 30 DoorDash gift cards to Ronald McDonald House NYC.
- We received a personal letter from one of the families who received the Target gift card in Philadelphia. After hearing their story, 11-year-old Logan fighting Osteosarcoma, received an even bigger surprise; a box of toys from his Christmas list!
- We made our usual toy deliveries to Prisma Children's Hospital in Columbia, SC, Shawn Jenkins Children's Hospital at MUSC, and Dwaine and Cynthia Willett Children's Hospital in Savannah, GA.
- Thanksgiving and Christmas lunches were provided to the children and their families through the CURE Open Arms Program at the children's hospital in Savannah.

We can still hear Jesse say, "we need to help these kids!". We know seeing his legacy unfold would have put a huge smile on his face.
